
Exploratory analysis, specified after every registered result was known; it changes no registered verdict.
Intervals are 95 percent and unadjusted; responses that share a writer are treated as independent.