
Exploratory analysis, specified after every registered result was known; it changes no registered verdict.
Intervals are 95 percent and unadjusted; responses that share a writer are treated as independent. This model did not converge within 500 iterations, so its estimates are description and no interval is drawn.